GENERAL INFORMATION

Accommodations:	Most UConn students live on-campus. On-campus housing is guaranteed for all exchange students that complete the online housing application by the due date. Students will have access to the online housing application after they have been formally accepted to the exchange program. Housing assignments will be made by Residential Life prior to the start of the semester. Single rooms are limited and most students have a roommate. For more information: http://www.reslife.uconn.edu Note: While Residential Life will make efforts to guarantee all incoming exchange students who meet application deadlines, adjustments may have to be made for on-campus housing based on the evolving COVID pandemic. Please continue to monitor http://www.reslife.uconn.edu for any updates notifications on Fall 2023 housing.
Arrival to Campus:	Students are encouraged to fly into an airport in the New York City or Boston areas. Bus transportation is available from New York City and Boston to UConn's campus in Storrs. Students may also arrive via Bradley International Airport (in the Hartford, CT area) and take a taxi to campus. For more information: https://abroad.uconn.edu/arrivalatuconn/
Medical Insurance:	It is mandatory for all exchange students to have personal medical insurance that meets all J-1 visa requirements. All exchange students are able to purchase UConn Health Insurance that meets all stated J-1 visa requirements: http://isss.uconn.edu/medical-insurance/
Visa Requirements:	Accepted exchange students will receive a DS-2019 form from UConn. This is needed to obtain your J-1 visa from the US Consulate/Embassy. Students must submit proof of sufficient funds for their term of study. For more information: https://abroad.uconn.edu/visaandimmigration/
Late Arrival Policy:	Due to UConn's policy regarding mandatory orientation, late arrivals are not permitted except for unforeseen circumstance (i.e. weather, flight cancellation...).
