Fordham Campuses

The Rose Hill campus is the original campus of Fordham University. It is a traditional college campus with green lawns, trees, large residence halls, sports facilities, and outdoor American football and baseball stadiums. The campus has the benefits of being located next to the NY Botanical Garden and the Bronx Zoo.

The Lincoln Center campus is located in Midtown Manhattan, just a couple of blocks from Central Park. It is an urban campus, with a public park space in the middle of tall campus buildings.

Visa

All students who do not have a United States passport will be required to apply for a J-1 Visitor Visa.

More information about the visa process and application will be made available during the application process.

Language Requirement

Applicants must submit proof of their English language proficiency and must meet the following qualifications:

- TOEFL iBT: 90+
- TOEFL PBT: 575+
- IELTS: 7.0+
- PTE-A (Pearson Test of English-Academic): 62+

Academics

As an undergraduate exchange student at Fordham University, you are permitted to take any course within the college to which you have been admitted. Fordham University has three colleges:

- Fordham College Rose Hill (FCRH) - Bronx
- Fordham College Lincoln Center (FCLC) - Manhattan
- Gabelli School of Business - Rose Hill campus ONLY (GSB) - Bronx

You must register for a regular full-time course load which is the equivalent of 15-18 U.S. credits upon your arrival at Fordham University.

Housing

On-campus housing is available on both campuses on a first-come, first-serve basis. More information regarding the various on-campus housing options and the cost is available through the Fordham Office of Residential Life.

Off-campus housing is available. However, Fordham University does not provide assistance to students searching for their own housing in New York City.

Health

Under the regulations it is required for all international students to have health insurance coverage while in the U.S.

NOTE: To participate in a Fordham exchange program, confirm with your home university's international office about nominations and the exchange program approval process.

Application deadlines:
Fall - March 1
Spring - October 1
