

Breda is a qualified accountant with extensive expertise in leading multiple functions including finance, IT, logistics and customer service including corporate compliance responsibility at Board and European Director Level for over 30 years.

Expertise includes relationship building, budgetary control and analysis, continuous improvement projects, multi-function management, team management and development, legal compliance, and change management. Public face and voice of LEO Galway in driving local, regional, and national entrepreneurship policies, capital projects and initiatives.

Passionate about developing resilient growing businesses and projects which support sustainable employment and enable economic and social development for the West.