Monica is Deputy University Librarian. She was raised and educated through Irish in Dublin. She has a B.A. in Computer Science, Linguistics and German from TCD, a Masters in Library and Information Science from UCD, and has completed Level 8 French with the University of Galway's Centre for Adult Learning and Professional Development. She has worked in the University of Galway Library since 2002. Prior to that, her career included a wide variety of library roles in DCU, DIT, UL and TCD, as well as experience working as researcher on EC Projects; project manager in a software development company; teaching assistant in UCD and university webmaster in DCU.

Over her time working in the Library, Monica has been involved in many University committees, including Learning, Teaching and Assessment Committee, Records Management Advisory Group and Strategic Planning Groups (Supply Chain Performance; HR). She has been a member of and has chaired several national working groups in the Research Library sector.