

IRISH UNIVERSITIES ACT, 1908.

ACHT CHOLAISTE PHRIOMH-SCOILE NA GAILLIMHE, 1929.

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE, GALWAY.

STATUTE XXXIV.

WE the Governing Body of University College, Galway, under and by virtue of the Powers in that behalf conferred on us by the above Acts DO by this present instrument under the Seal of University College Galway, make the Statute contained in the Schedule hereof for the general government of the said College.

GIVEN under the Common Seal of University College, Galway, this Ninth day of February, 1949.

Present when the Common Seal of University College, Galway, was affixed:—

SCHEDULE—STATUTE XXXIV.

1. All previous Statutes of University College, Galway, shall be read and construed with the additions, modifications, and amendments hereinafter set forth.

2. The Lectureship in Electrical Technology, Applied Heat, and Mathematics instituted by Statute LXXII of the National University of Ireland and provided for by Statute XXXI of University College, Galway, shall not be filled, and the said Lectureship is hereby extinguished.

3. There shall be established in the College in the event of its institution by the Senate of the National University of Ireland a new full-time Lectureship to be known as The Lectureship in Civil Engineering, Electrical Technology, and Applied Heat. This Lectureship shall not be filled until the resignation of the present Assistant in Electrical Engineering and Mathematics conditional on his Appointment to the Lectureship or until the Assistantship in Electrical Engineering and Mathematics shall become otherwise vacant.

If, however, for any reason whatever, the Lectureship shall not be filled before the first day of November, 1950, it shall become automatically extinguished.

4. The Holder of the Lectureship in Civil Engineering, Electrical Technology, and Applied Heat shall carry out his duties subject to the direction of the Professor of Civil Engineering. The duties of the Holder may be hereafter more particularly defined by regulations of the Governing Body.

5. The stipend of the Lectureship in Civil Engineering, Electrical Technology and Applied Heat shall be £650 per annum, increasing by £40 per annum until a maximum stipend of £850 per annum shall be reached. The first increment of £40 shall accrue on the 1st day of October next following the date of first appointment to the Lectureship. The Governing Body may before proceeding to make an Appointment to the Lectureship prescribe a higher commencing stipend than the minimum stipend of £650 per annum, so as such commencing stipend shall not exceed the maximum stipend of £850 per annum.

6. The Lectureship in Civil Engineering, Electrical Technology and Applied Heat shall be a Pensionable Office within the meaning of Chapter XXV of Statute XVII of University College Galway, and the amendments thereto, and shall be annexed to Table B. of The Pension Scheme. The stipend of the said Lectureship for pension purposes within the meaning of Statute XXVIII of University College Galway shall be £850 per annum.

7. In addition to pension there shall be paid to the holder of the Lectureship in Civil Engineering, Electrical Technology, and Applied Heat on retirement, or to his personal representative in case of death, a gratuity of £85 per annum for each year of actual service in the College provided:—

(a) Gratuity shall not be payable in respect of the said Lectureship unless the Holder thereof has had five years of service in the College in a pensionable office.

(b) The maximum number of years to be taken into account when calculating the amount of the gratuity shall be ten.

8. Section 7 of Chapter II of Statute XXXIII of University College Galway, is hereby revoked.

9. This Statute shall come into operation on the Ninth day of February, One thousand nine hundred and forty-nine, and may be cited as Statute XXXIV of University College Galway or Stat. XXXIV Univ. Coll. Galway.
