Teachtaireacht ón Uachtarán

Fearaim fáilte roimh chairde agus roimh mhuintir na mac léinn a bhfuil cáilíochtaí á mbronnadh orthu inniu ar an lá speisialta seo agus déanaim comhghairdeas libh go léir. Glacadh leis na chéad mhic léinn san Ollscoil seo sa bhliain 1849. Ó shin i leith, tá os cionn 118,000 céimí a bhfuil a gcuid ardoideachais faighte san Ollscoil seo, oideachas den scoth, mar is léir ó na poist ghradamacha atá bainte amach acu ní hamháin in Éirinn ach ar fud an domhain. Tá aiféala orainn nach féidir linn ceiliúradh libh ar an gcampas i mbliana ach tá súil againn go mbeidh deis againn fáilte a chur romhaibh arís d'ócáid cheiliúrtha a reáchtálfar nuair is féidir agus go bhfanfaidh sibh i dteagmháil linn agus lena chéile san am atá amach romhainn.

San am eisceachtúil seo, is céimithe eisceachtúla sibh. Go raibh maith agaibh as a bheith ar bhur nós féin agus as bhur dtuiscint sna hamanna dúshlánacha seo.

An tOllamh Ciarán Ó hÓgartaigh
BComm (Gaillimh), DipPrAcc (COBÁC),
PhD (Leeds), CA (Éire)
An tUachtarán

Ciarán —

President's Message

On this significant day in you and your family's life, I extend a warm welcome on behalf of the University to the friends and the families of our graduands, who are so deserving of our congratulations. Since it opened its doors in 1849, over 118,000 graduates have benefited from higher education in this University, the quality of which is demonstrated by the distinguished positions they held, and continue to hold, not only in Ireland but across the globe. We are sorry that we can't celebrate with you on campus this year but hope that we will have the opportunity to welcome you back for a celebratory event when circumstances allow and that you will remain in touch with us and with each other in the time before us.

In exceptional times, you are exceptional graduates. Thank you for being yourselves and giving of yourselves in these challenging times.

Professor Ciarán Ó hÓgartaigh,
BComm (Galway), DipPrAcc (UCD),
PhD (Leeds), CA (Ireland)
President

Teachtaireacht ón Úachtarán Ionaid agus Meabhránaí

Is cúis áthais é dom fáilte a chur romhaibh go hOllscoil na hÉireann, Gaillimh ar an lá speisialta seo. Táimid anseo inniu chun ceiliúradh poiblí a dhéanamh ar an ghaisce acadúil atá déanta agaibh i gceann bhur gcuid cúrsaí léinn le cúpla bliain anuas. Lá mór i bhféilire na hOllscoile atá ann agus ócáid níos mó agus níos tábhachtaí arís in bhur saol féin. Go maire sibh bhur gcéimíocht úr agus guím gach rath oraibh sa tsaol atá romhaibh amach mar chéimithe de chuid Ollscoil na hÉireann, Gaillimh.

The formal ceremony today takes place in an unusual context, one that has been a challenge both to all of you and to our staff here at NUI Galway. Nevertheless, we maintain the traditions of the occasion, to recognise your achievement in the three traditional languages of the Irish academic world, Latin, Irish and English. In so doing, we recognize a long pedigree in this country, which in the West of Ireland originated with the establishment of Queen's College Galway in 1845, alongside Queen's Colleges in Belfast and Cork.

Then as now this University and its staff have been about ensuring that those who pass through here as students go out into the wide world equipped with the best education that they can get and that we can give them. The word 'university' comes from the Latin 'universitas magistrorum et scholarium' which translates as 'a community of teachers and scholars', and that notion of community is something we continue to cherish here. After today's ceremony you, the graduands, will take your place in an outstanding community, Galway graduates, and it is my fervent hope that you will do so with pride.

Message from the Deputy President and Registrar

Tá súil agam chomh maith go mbainfidh sibh sult ní hamháin as an lá inniu leis an teaghlach agus, más féidir, le bhur gcuid cairde, ach as an tsaol atá romhaibh amach fosta.

An tOllamh/Professor Pól Ó Dochartaigh,

MRIA, FRHistS, FHEA, FRSA,
BA (Cardiff), BA, PG CUT (Ulster),
PhD, DLitt (Nottingham)
