Please read the notes below carefully and then sign and date the form at the end of the page. If you require clarification on any of these matters please contact the Student Registry Helpdesk in the first instance.

1. Fees – Contact Fees Office - <https://www.universityofgalway.ie/student-fees/contact/>

2. Scholarship Awardees

It is important that you first notify your supervisor and your Funding Agency/Funder of your decision to withdraw from studies, in order to comply with the Terms and Conditions of your funding award. Please also notify Research Accounts at scholarships@universityofgalway.ie

3. Implications of no longer being in full time education which must be considered

Please note that if you are no longer a student that your Social Welfare Status changes, student travel discounts may no longer apply and scholarship/grants will cease.

3. Accommodation

If you are in rented accommodation you may incur liabilities in respect of breaking a lease or contract with your landlord. You may also lose your accommodation deposit.

I have read the notes above. I am aware I cease to be a student of University of Galway and am therefore not entitled to any benefits accruing to a student of University of Galway and am liable for any remaining unpaid fees in respect of the course to date. I return herewith my University of Galway student I.D. Card.
