

NUI Galway School of Psychology

Research Seminar Series – 2016/2017

Coordinator: Molly Byrne, molly.byrne@nuigalway.ie

Seminars take place every second Tuesday during semester in the School of Psychology, 1-2 pm.

A light lunch is served in the ground floor foyer of the School of Psychology from 12.30 in advance of the seminars. All are welcome.

All seminars take place in room AMBE G065, with the exception of 11/10/2016 which will take place in room AMBE G067 instead.

Semester 1

Date	Speaker	Title
13/09/2016	Gary Donohoe, Professor, School of Psychology, NUI Galway	Understanding and treating cognitive disability in psychosis
27/09/2016	Karen Matvienko-Sikar, Post-doctoral Researcher Department of Epidemiology & Public Health, University College Cork and HBCRG	Promoting Positive Prenatal Mental Health: Psychological and Physiological Outcomes
11/10/2016 AMBE G067	Chris Noone, PhD candidate, School of Psychology, NUI Galway	Mindfulness and Critical Thinking: structural relations, short-term state effects, and long-term intervention effects.
25/10/2016	Teresa Corbett, PhD candidate, School of Psychology, NUI Galway	The development of online interventions for post-treatment cancer survivors- challenges and opportunities
08/11/2016	Sean Hughes, Post-doctoral Researcher, Ghent University, Belgium	Implicit cognition and evaluative conditioning
22/11/2016	Jacob Orquin, Associate Professor, Aarhus University, Denmark	Optimal stopping in visual decision making

Semester 2

Date	Speaker	Title
17/01/2017	Omar Mothersill, Lecturer and Dr. Maria Dauvermann, Post-doctoral Researcher on the iRELATE Study, School of Psychology, NUI Galway	The Environment and Mental Health: New Lessons from Neuroscience
31/01/2017	HBCRG: Milou Fredrix, PhD Candidate, Jenny McSharry, Post-doctoral Researcher, and Molly Byrne, Lecturer	Update on behavioural research priorities in diabetes: Goal setting, attending structured education and measuring what matters
14/02/2017	Dermot Barnes-Holmes, Professor, Ghent University, Belgium	It's Cognition, Jim, But Not as We Know It: A Brief Review of the Functional-Analytic Abstractive Approach to Human Psychology"
28/02/2017	TO BE CONFIRMED
14/03/2017	Esther Walton, Post-doctoral researcher, University of Bristol, UK	Longitudinal epigenetics in ALSPAC with a focus on ADHD and Mendelian Randomization.
28/03/2017	Amanda Sesker, PhD candidate, School of Psychology, NUI Galway	TO BE CONFIRMED