

Whistleblowing, Families and Justice

Exploring the human, legal and institutional consequences of speaking up

3 November 2026 | 10:00–16:30 | CA239e – Events Room | Hybrid workshop

Research outputs
featured during
the workshop

Whistleblower Protection
Directive Evaluation

Have Your Say consultation

Whistleblowing as a Family Matter

Support, Strain and Survival
After Speaking Up

Twelve Years of Whistleblower Protection in Ireland

What Does the Case Law Reveal?

OLLSCOIL NA
GAILLIMHE
UNIVERSITY OF GALWAY

Scoil an Ghnó & na
hEacnamaíochta J.E Cairnes
J.E. Cairnes School of Business & Economics

Ollscoil na hÉireann
National University of Ireland

TRANSPARENCY
INTERNATIONAL
IRELAND

ROSETTA

Programme

Whistleblowing, Families and Justice

3 November 2026 | University of Galway

10:00–10:30

Welcome Coffee and Registration

10:30–11:00

Whistleblower Protection in Ireland: Challenges, Lessons and the Road Ahead

Opening reflections by Senator Tom Clonan

11:00–12:00

Twelve Years of Whistleblower Protection in Ireland: What Does the Case Law Reveal?

Taymi Milán · Lauren Kierans · David Lewis

Irish case law, implementation challenges and comparative perspectives on whistleblower protection.

12:00–12:30

Q&A and Audience
Discussion

12:30–13:30

Lunch Break

13:30–14:00

Networking and Afternoon
Registration

14:00–14:30

Whistleblowing as a Family
Matter: Report Launch

Kate Kenny

Main findings on relational and family consequences of whistleblowing.

14:30–15:20

Fireside Chat

John Devitt & Maurice McCabe

Survival strategies and the aftermath of whistleblowing, drawing on lived experience.

15:20–16:00

Q&A and Audience
Discussion

Discussion of the report, lived experience and questions for the speakers.

16:00–16:30

Closing Reflections and Future Directions

Implications for policy, practice and future research.

More information

University of Galway
Whistleblowing Research Group

Transparency International Ireland
Integrity at Work

